NORTHERNER AND STUART

Gives Coins to Sell to Aid the Monument.

ARTIST GUDEBROD HERE

An Important Meeting of the Monument Committee Held Last Night. Mr. Moynihan is Expected Here Next Week.

The most unique of all contributions to the Stuart monument was received last night, being none other than a dozen or more rare and old coins, stamps and Confederate shinplasters. The giver is a Northern man, a resident of Delaware, who fought, however, under Stuart, and was one of the Maryland The gift dates from 1802 and is made by Edwin S. Dean. The coins were put in a box and with them a letter put in a box and with them a letter, dated June 9th, 1892. The writer stated that he was the only man of Delaware who longent under squart, though there were many of his State in the Maryland line. He esteemed Stuart the greatest cavalry leader who ever hved. He wanted to see a monument creeted to his memory, and, as he could not give much, money, he wanted the proceeds of the sale of these rare old coins to be devoted to that pun loss. They were to be turned over to the proper authority, when a systematic effort should be made with that end in view. The letter was addressed to Mr. Poik Miller and the coins entrusted to him. Mr. Miller gave them to Mr. T. W. Sydnor. Some of the coins date back nearly two hundred years, some probably older, but it is difficult to read the date. Some are American, some English, and one or two Spanish. This is a fine opportunity for scallecter of rare coins to increases his ctor of rare coins to increase his

Completely Banished the Pains

No. 211 North Limestone Street, Lexington, Kv., April 2nd, 1903.

I suffered for nearly ten years with female trouble, bearing down pains and at times intense agony. The doctor said I must have fallen or strained myself and I had prolapsus uteri. It was a constant and chronic affection forbidding any considerable effort, and at times I was confined to my bed for days. I felt a heaviness and weight in the lower abdomen, lameness in the back or across the bins. Wine of Cardui changed all this within a short time, Fifteen bottles so far restored me to perfect health that I felt but occasional twinges of pain. I began to have a splendid appetite and new life, and after using eleven bottles more was entirely cured. This is nearly a year ago and I have not had a sick day since.

female troubles are the most difficult cases they have to handle and statistics show that they make comparatively few complete cures of these diseases. A doctor who has success in treating female troubles becomes a specialist and dropping his general practice advances his charges so that very few people of ordinary means have the money to avail themselves of his services. Wine of Cardul treats female diseases in a correct and scientific manner. It is a great tonic but it always goes to the root of the trouble and corrects the real cause. Wine of Cardui searched out the weakness which kept Mrs. McNeal an invalid for ten years. Isn't that the medicine for you? If you are suffering, the same relief will be yours if you take Wine of Cardui. There is no mystery about it. Just a plain, natural, simple vegetable medicine that has given hundreds of thousands of other women health. Will you take it? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui or Sunday night with a few exceptions as did the judges. The only one of them recogning is Mr. John R. Valentine, of sivn Mawr, Pa., a judge in the saddle and hunter classes, who is now at the Jefferson and Ill. Mrs. Valentine is with him. These New York and Baltimore visitors are loud in their praise of the Richmond show and express their surprise that a city of this size could organize and support such a magnificent show, which they say ranks next to New York's and above all the rest.

WILL COME NEXT YEAR.
Almost every one of the distant exhibitors assured the management that they would return next year. There is no doubt that they will be welcomed back, for they are now well known to Richmond crowds, and have won admirers and friends here by their brilliant riding and driving and their magnificent teams and saddlers and hunters. This is especially true of Mrs. Greken Mrs. Greavener Mrs. Woodend.

PICKETT CAMP WILL ENTERTAIN

Ladies. Veterans of Lee Camp and Friends Generally invited to Next Meeting

Pickett Camp, C. V., engages to make next Monday night memorable. They intend to have many friends of theirs, lades and gentlemen present, and a committee is preparing an interesting programme for the delectation. Southern songs will be a special feature. Colonel Gervas Storrs, formerly commander of Lee Camp, who was present at the nueting last night, was particularly charged with bearing an invitation to Lee Camp to attend next Monday evening. The Sons of merchans will also be invited. An interesting meeting of Pickett Camp was hed last night. Commander Winston was in the chair and Adjutant Northen at his desk. The body decided to invite the committee of the camp during the month or November, the date to be selected by the minister.

After the transaction of routine business, the camp, led by Comrade Valentine, united in singing Confederate songs-Dixie first then "Maryland, My Maryland" and so on.
